FROM THE PASTOR'S CORNER

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Gospel reading is taken from St. Luke (Lk 4:21-30). This rejection of Jesus by his own townfolk must have sincerely grieved him. But it was only the beginning of similar rejections. Their attempt to murder him was an indication of what was yet to come. "To his own he came but his own did not accept him" as St. John says (1:11). The reason was that the Messiah they were looking for was a political leader who would make Israel a political power not only among the nations but over the other nations. Nearly all the messianic prophecies had references to the universality of the messianic kingdom—this universality they interpreted in a political, worldly sense. Their interest in things spiritual was then at a very low ebb and therefore the message of Christ had little interest for them. They did not want a spiritual kingdom.

For seventeen centuries they had been God's Chosen People, and they were proud of their superiority over the sinful Gentiles who did not know the true God. That very pride of theirs was their undoing. The Gentiles were God's children too, and they also were to share in the new kingdom which the Messiah would establish, but the very thought of this was abhorrent to the vast majority of the Jews.

In spite of all their opposition, however, Jesus spent his public life amongst them. He gave them the first offer of entering the new kingdom. They could still continue to be God's Chosen People together with, and alongside, the other nations of the earth. They refused. And their refusal went so far as to call in the aid of the hated Gentiles to crucify the One—their own fellow Jew—who had come to bring them the message of the true kingdom and the offer of being its first citizens.

There were exceptions, of course, and honorable exceptions at that. Christ founded his Church, the new kingdom of God on the Apostles, who were Jews, and through their noble sacrifices and efforts, the kingdom spread to all the Gentile nations of the earth. Because of their sacrifices, we are Christians, members of Christ's kingdom on earth and heirs to his eternal kingdom in heaven. Through our Christian teaching we have learned that our life on this earth is but a period of preparation, a period during which we can earn the true life as citizens of his eternal kingdom. How often do we, like the Jews of Christ's day, forget this and bend all our efforts to building for ourselves a kingdom of power or wealth in this world, a kingdom which we will have to leave so soon?

We would not, of course, openly deny Christ, much less try, like his neighbors in Nazareth, to throw him to his death over a cliff: but how often in our private actions, and in our dealings with our neighbors, do we push him and his doctrine quietly aside and act as if we knew him not. In this we are no better than Christ's neighbors of Nazareth and we grieve his loving heart as much as they did on that sad day. Am I one of those (each one of us can ask himself)? Do I really love Christ or, to put it in a more personal way, do I really love myself? If I do, I will not risk losing my place in the eternal kingdom for the sake of some paltry pleasure or gain in this present life which will end for me so very soon.

SER PROFETA

Las lecturas de hoy nos muestran lo que es ser profeta. Cuando Jeremías vuelve a contar su llamada, Dios le advierte que necesitará fortaleza y perseverancia para resistir la hostilidad a la que se enfrentará por parte de “los reyes y príncipes de Judá, sus sacerdotes y su pueblo” (Jeremías 1:18b). Dios también le asegura que “no te vencerán, por que yo estoy contigo” (1:19). El salmo muestra tanto las luchas como la liberación de ellas (“salvación”).

Esto es exactamente lo que Jesús experimenta en el Evangelio de hoy. Después de que afirma que su misión es la misma como la que Isaías proclamó, al principio el pueblo se maravilla de sus “palabras misericordiosas” (Lucas 4:22). Sin embargo, pronto ellos se vuelven desconfiados, escépticos y hostiles, e incluso amenazan con matarlo. Pero, al igual que Dios prometió a Jeremías, Jesús “paso en medio de ellos y se fue” (4:30).

Los católicos de Los Ángeles están trabajando por la protección infantil

¿Sabía que la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles requiere que todos los miembros del personal y los voluntarios que trabajan en cualquier capacidad con o cerca de niños, ancianos o personas con necesidades especiales completen el programa VIRTUS® Protecting God's Children for Adults? (Protegiendo a los hijos de Dios para el programa de adultos). Este programa ayuda a prevenir el abuso sexual infantil al crear conciencia entre el personal y los voluntarios, y educarlos sobre las señales de advertencia de abuso, escenarios potencialmente inseguros o inapropiados y cómo responder a comportamientos sospechosos. Los adultos que se someten a la capacitación VIRTUS® también aprenden los cinco pasos para ayudar a prevenir el abuso sexual infantil. St. Agatha

“Of noble birth and great beauty,” so the ancient accounts describe Saint Agatha, martyred during an early persecution for refusing a powerful Roman’s offer of marriage, since she had consecrated her virginity to Christ. An early preacher, Saint Methodius, reflects instead on her name, noting that, in Greek, Agatha means “good,” goodness being something we can all strive for, nobly born or common, blessed with beauty—or not! So brutal the tortures that violated her youthful innocence, Agatha, like Agnes and several other women martyrs, was honored from time immemorial by having her name inscribed in the Roman Canon (Eucharistic Prayer I). Long invoked as protector against earthquakes—Mount Etna erupted as she was being tortured—recent attention has focused on the particularly cruel torture decreed for Agatha, the cutting off of her breasts. This has inspired cancer survivors to promote Saint Agatha as patron and intercessor for women courageously facing breast cancer, for their families and the multitude of supporters who participate in fund-raising marches and races, and, of course, for the dedicated researchers who seek a cure.
