Readings & Prayers for the Sick

First Reading:

This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. (Acts 10:40-41)

Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (Col 3:2-3)

Gospel:

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Jn 20:9)

FROM THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Easter Sunday, Year "C" Jesus is Alive forever

We are the Easter people, Alleluia is our song. Jesus has risen from the dead. Human salvation is assured. Today the sadness of Good Friday has given way to the Joy the risen Lord brings to those who believe. Jesus has paid the ultimate price for our sins and has assured us that it is paid to the full. The injustice of Good Friday has given way to the reign of God's goodness, mercy and love. On this blessed and holy day, we celebrate not just a single event; we celebrate the full meaning of history. We celebrate a perfect integration of two mysteries - the mystery of death and the mystery of life.

The Christian story is a LOVE story that is re-told in many ways. The Easter story is a re-creation of the Christmas story. It is the story of the redemption of the human race. Our world big as it is still needs a savior to liberate it from injustice, slavery, sin, bigotry, lies, vanity, oppression, etc. and that savior is Jesus.

Easter is a unique season. It is neither a holiday nor a shopping season. To say the least, this is a farming season. There may not be an Easter carol on the radio and television, yet, like the birth of Jesus, today is the Day all of creation is "born again." Today is the Day that humanity is reborn to a new life of glory, goodness and truth.

The Good News of the birth of Jesus was given to Three Wise Men and today the Good News of the resurrection is given to Three Wise Women – Mary Magdalene, the Mother of James and Salome.

Hearing the good news and being led by the star, the shepherds went to where they imagined the King might be born – at the house of Herod. Scripture revealed to them that "in Bethlehem of Judea shall come forth a savior to shepherd God's people. Today the Women, knowing where Jesus was buried, go to look for Jesus in the tomb. On entering the tomb, the Angel said to them, "You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised. He is not here."

The risen and glorified Jesus goes not to Jerusalem the Holy City but to Galilee the "sinful city." – "Go to Galilee and you will see Jesus there."

Jesus goes to Galilee because He died to save sinners and to restore a fallen humanity to the glory of God. What would have life been for us had Christ not died for us? Even if you had known Jesus as the messiah and fell down before His feet and dined with Him and listened to His word, Jesus had to die for human beings to be reconciled with God.

In Jesus, we see the Divine Santa and we are the Rudolf. Like Rudolf the red nosed reindeer, our sins disfigure us and make us ugly, not appealing for anyone to look at. No one likes to play the reindeer game with us because sin has disfigured us. Jesus, the Divine Santa gives His life to restore us to the glory of God.

Our new life becomes exponential in character because our former life cannot explain the new life we now enjoy in Jesus. How glorious, how happy, how blessed indeed is the life of the one who is restored to the glory of God!

Like the Shepherds and the Women, we often seek for Jesus in the wrong places. We spend so much of our precious time and energy looking for Jesus in places and persons where we imagine Him to be (Herod's Palace and in the Tomb). Jesus is not there.

How often have we looked for Jesus in our successes, good times, among the so called good people and people of influence, but miss seeing Jesus in our failures, bad times like poor health, disappointment, or among the unwanted and lonely people around us?

We spend thousands of dollars in search of the risen Lord at some shrines, churches and other places we consider sacred, and miss seeing Jesus who is also present at the secular places, work places, and shopping places around us.

Where is the risen Lord? To know where the risen Lord is necessitates that we should know what the message of the resurrection is. That single message is "God is love." Anyone who lives in love lives in God and God lives in Him. God's love is not to be found in Jerusalem. Jesus is found in the Galilees of our world today – Jesus is among the poor, the lonely, the oppressed and the forgotten.

Look around you, there is Jesus in the beauty of nature - the mountains proclaim the glory of God, the flowers, the songs, the setting of the sun reveal the presence of God, etc. The risen Lord is found where love, truth, beauty and goodness are celebrated.

Our celebration of the Eucharist becomes both a concrete expression of our belief in the resurrection of Jesus and our willingness to go beyond our own expectations of where the risen Lord is found. It is an invitation to see God in all things and to open our hearts to the reign of love, truth, peace and justice in the world.

Jesus is not dead. Jesus is alive ...forever. Alleluia is our song. We do not worship a dead God. We worship a living God who is always present in us and in the world.

The great news of Easter is that we don't have to go to Jerusalem or Rome to see the risen Lord. Jesus is here with us as we gather in His name. Look at your right and you will see Jesus, and at your left and you will see Jesus.

The Easter joy thus challenges us to go out to the Galilees of our world today to proclaim the good news of salvation by working for the civilization of love on earth. For Jesus Christ has risen from the Dead - Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Did you know?

During National Child Abuse Prevention Month, and on behalf of Archbishop José H. Gomez, we affirm our continued commitment to report allegations of sexual misconduct to law enforcement, support victim-survivors in their healing journey, and protect children and the vulnerable. The Archdiocese created a website, <https://lacatholics.org/protect/> that serves as a comprehensive tool containing resources, programs and services for protecting children and reporting abuse. If you, or someone you know, is a victim of sexual misconduct by someone affiliated with our Church, please contact law enforcement and the Archdiocese's Victims Assistance Coordinator at (213) 637-7650 or visit <https://lacatholics.org/reporting-child-abuse/> for help and support. In addition, Archbishop Gomez invites you to join him and many across the Archdiocese to the Novena for Protecting and Healing from Abuse, April 22-30. To join please visit <https://lacatholics.org/united-together/>.

¡Aleluya, Cristo ha resucitado! Qué día tan glorioso y santo. La resurrección de Cristo habla de libertad, vida nueva, fe restaurada y amor perdurable e incondicional. La enorme piedra que separa la vida y la muerte ha sido movida, permitiendo que el poder radiante de Dios de la entrada a la vida eterna. Cuando vemos la verdad de la resurrección de Cristo a través de los ojos del amor, vemos la plenitud de la belleza, la verdad y la maravilla eterna reveladas. El vacío de la tumba se llena con la eternidad del amor. Tenemos muchos peñascos y piedras que bloquean el camino hacia la libertad, el amor y el gozo. A menudo son demasiado grandes para que los podamos mover y nos paralizan. Podemos dar un salto de fe hoy y creer con todo nuestro corazón, mente y alma que hay mucho más de lo que se puede ver a simple vista. Hay algo muy santo, sagrado y eterno que se agita dentro de nosotros. ¡Queremos vivir para siempre! La resurrección de Cristo nos trae gozo y nos permite vernos a nosotros mismos como debemos ser vistos, ¡como hijos de Dios destinados a la gloria!

Durante el Mes Nacional de Prevención del Abuso Infantil, y en nombre del Arzobispo José H. Gomez, afirmamos nuestro compromiso continuo de reportar las denuncias de conducta sexual inapropiada a las autoridades policiales, de apoyar a las víctimas sobrevivientes en su jornada de sanación y de proteger a los niños y a los vulnerables. La Arquidiócesis creó un sitio web, <https://lacatholics.org/protect/>, que sirve como una herramienta integral que contiene recursos, programas y servicios para proteger a los niños y denunciar abusos. Si usted, o alguien que usted conoce, es víctima de conducta sexual inapropiada por parte de alguien afiliado a nuestra Iglesia, comuníquese con las autoridades policiales y con la Coordinadora de Asistencia a las Víctimas de la Arquidiócesis al (213) 637-7650 o visite <https://lacatholics.org/reporting-child-abuse/> para ayuda y apoyo.

A Word From Our Archbishop Jose H. Gomez

*For a copy of his letter, please read the "Working Together to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse" Brochure ."

My dear brothers and sisters,

As you know, for nearly a year now we have been in the grips of a global health crisis. But despite the challenges of the coronavirus pandemic, the Church here in Los Angeles has continued its vigilance and commitment to child safety in our parishes, schools, and other ministries.

Using Zoom and other online platforms, we have trained more than 4,000 clergy, staff, and volunteers in our VIRTUS® Adult Awareness program since the pandemic began. Our Empowering God's Children and Young People© child sexual abuse prevention program has also continued successfully, using online platforms.

HAPPY EASTER

All Souls Church would like to express its deepest gratitude to all the ministries who helped to lead both our Holy Week celebrations and the activities that preceded it.

Thanks to your help, we were able to honor the journey of resurrection of Our Lord in faith and service.

A special thank you to all the parishioners who answered the call to donate palms and lilies.

We have everyone who helped in our hearts and prayers.

Our Next Food Distribution will take place on Thursday, April 21, 2022 from 12 noon to 1pm.
