GOSPEL MEDITATION

8th Sunday in Ordinary Time Luke 6:39-45

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

One of the things that older pastors and younger priests occasionally quarrel about is the proper balance between work and prayer. I know one pastor who complains that his younger associate ignores the people and the parish because he wants to spend more time in prayer. And the young priest complains that the pastor gives him too much work to do and no time to pray. The Lord's words this Sunday speak into this tension with an image that can help us find a proper balance between life and prayer.

Jesus says, "For every tree is known by its fruit. For people do not pick figs from thorn bushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles" (Luke 6:44). When we are deeply rooted and cultivating our relationship with Jesus, we are going to bear the fruit of that love in our lives. No fruit, no good prayer. How do we know that we are praying well? We are experiencing concrete fruits of love for others in our lives.

Someone who prays well will, sooner or later, burst forth the "figs" and "grapes" of acts of love. But without concrete commitment to deeds of selfless service to others, our prayer time is as useless as thorn bushes and brambles. Let's recommit ourselves to be men and women of prayer and service. And hopefully the pastors will help their associates to pray and serve fruitfully...with minimal quarreling. — Father John Muir

The Log in Your Eye

Today's Gospel is a big favorite of non-Christians — or Christians who don't like being told what to do.

That trusty ol' remove the wooden beam from your own eye line is a classic. Mind your business, Christians! You're not perfect either.

And that's entirely true. None of us are perfect. We've all got logs in our eyes. We can't approach life acting like we have the answers simply because we follow Jesus.

Jesus has the answers, and we have Jesus.

The real problem with having someone remove a splinter from my eye, if he himself has a log in his eye, is not that he has no business removing the splinter from my eye. It's that he can't see clearly to do it. His own eyesight is occluded.

If we see a splinter in another person's eye, or a problem in the world that needs to be fixed, or a scandal in the community that should be addressed, what Jesus is saying is not that we should ignore it and move on. He's merely saying that, when we see these things, we must take them first as a challenge to examine ourselves. To address the problem as it exists within our own souls, so that we ensure we are seeing clearly. Then, if we reach out to pluck the splinter, we will do so with clear eyesight.

He wants us to worry as much about our own souls as we do about other people's.

We tend to look at the world and feel anxious — so much evil! So much hate! So much sin! We pray, God, when will you change it?

And He whispers back: I will change it here. Now. In your own heart. You just have to ask.

Did you know?

Disasters such as hurricanes, earthquakes, transportation accidents, or wildfires are typically unexpected, sudden, and overwhelming. For many people, there are no outwardly visible signs of physical injury, but there can be nonetheless an emotional toll. It is common for people who have experienced disaster to have strong emotional reactions. Understanding responses to distressing events can help you cope effectively with your feelings, thoughts, and behaviors, and help you along the path to recovery. Jesús anima a sus seguidores a ser humildes en el juicio de los demás y consciente en el habla. ¿Has tenido buenos modelos a seguir en tu vida para estas virtudes?

INTENCIONES

Nuestro libro de Intenciones 2025 esta disponible.

Si usted desea ofrecer una misa por algun ser querido, favor de visitar nuestro Centro Pastoral lo mas pronto posible para asegurar que la fecha este disponible.

Catástrofes como huracanes, terremotos, accidentes de transporte o incendios son generalmente inesperadas, repentinas y abrumadoras. Para muchas personas, no hay signos visibles de heridas físicas, pero puede haber un impacto emocional. Es común que las personas que han sufrido una catástrofe tengan fuertes reacciones emocionales. El conocimiento de posibles reacciones a situaciones de crisis le puede ayudar a afrontar los sentimientos, pensamientos y comportamientos, y ayudarlo en el camino hacia la recuperación. Unidos en la Misión 2025: Campaña anual "Dones del Corazón"

Este año, mientras celebramos el Año Jubilar de la Iglesia Católica, te invitamos a hacer una donación especial a Unidos en Misión para marcar este tiempo sagrado de renovación y esperanza. La Campaña Anual “Dones del Corazón” de Unidos en la Misión 2025 se lanza con el fin de semana de anuncio el 1 y 2 de febrero, el fin de semana de compromiso el 8 y 9 de febrero y el fin de semana de seguimiento el 15 y 16 de febrero de 2025. Como una comunidad católica de fe, arraigada en la oración, reflexionemos sobre cómo podemos apoyar a nuestras parroquias y escuelas de escasos recursos en la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles. ¿Sabía que una de cada cinco parroquias y una de cada cuatro escuelas católicas dependen de la asistencia financiera para continuar con sus ministerios vitales? Su generosidad impacta directamente a estas comunidades, brindándoles los recursos que necesitan para prosperar. La meta global de Unidos en Misión de este año es de $16,9 millones, lo que representa los esfuerzos colectivos de nuestra familia católica en las cinco regiones. La meta y el progreso de su parroquia a lo largo del año se pueden seguir en la tabla de clasificación de Unidos en Misión en togetherinmission.org. Unámonos para marcar la diferencia y llevar el amor de Cristo a los necesitados. ¡Considere hacer una donación especial del Año Jubilar a Unidos en Misión hoy!
