FROM THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Easter Sunday, Year "C"

The resurrection of Jesus: Jesus is alive forever. Amen

Edith Burns was a wonderful Christian who lived in San Antonio, Texas. She was the patient of a doctor by the name of W. Phillips. Dr. Phillips was a gentle doctor who saw patients as people. His favorite patient was Edith Burns. One morning he went to his office with a heavy heart and it was because of Edith Burns....

"Hello, my name is Edith Burns. Do you believe in Easter?" Then she would explain the meaning of Easter, and many times people would be saved

Everybody on her floor from staff to patients were so excited about Edith, that they started calling her Edith Easter; that is everyone except Phyllis Cross, the head nurse. Phyllis made it plain that she wanted nothing to do with Edith because she was a "religious nut"....

One morning the two nurses who were to attend to Edith were sick. Edith had the flu and Phyllis Cross had to go in and give her a shot. When she walked in, Edith had a big smile on her face and said, "Phyllis, God loves you and I love you, and I have been praying for you."

Phyllis Cross said, "Well, you can quit praying for me, it won't work. I'm not interested." Edith said, "Well, I will pray and I have asked God not to let me go home until you come into the family."

Phyllis Cross said, "Then you will never die because that will never happen," and curtly walked out of the room....

Two days later, on Easter Sunday, Phyllis Cross came in to work, did some of her duties and then went down to the flower shop and got some Easter lilies because she wanted to go up to see Edith and give her some Easter lilies.... When she walked into Edith's room, Edith was in bed. That big black Bible was on her lap. Her hands were in that Bible. There was a sweet smile on her face.

When Phyllis Cross went to pick up Edith's hand, she realized Edith was dead. Her left hand was on John 14: "In my Father's house are many mansions. I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also." Her right hand was on Revelation 21:4, "And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes, there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying; and there shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

Phyllis Cross took one look at that dead body, and then lifted her face toward heaven, and with tears streaming down her cheeks, said, "Happy Easter, Edith - Happy Easter!"

Phyllis Cross left Edith's body, walked out of the room, and over to a table where two student nurses were sitting. She said, "My name is Phyllis Cross. Do you believe in Easter?" - Author Unknown.

Easter story has a known author and the author is Jesus Christ. Jesus is the son of God. He came into the world that we may have life and have it in abundance. Jesus came to restore a fallen humanity to the glory of God. He suffered and died on the cross for the salvation of the world. Today we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus from death.

We have gathered today to proclaim the good news of salvation. Jesus has risen from death and He lives to die no more. Jesus was a good man who came to reveal the love of God to the world. Jesus called God His father and wanted everyone to know about Him, love Him and serve Him. Jesus supported His message with miraculous signs and wonders. As people began to believe in Him, His lifestyle became a threat to Jewish authorities who regarded Jesus as a rebel and a law breaker. Thinking that the best way to stop the Jesus movement was to kill Him, they leveled false accusation against Him, condemned and nailed Him on the cross.

On Good Friday we saw human cruelty at its worst. Jesus was betrayed, denied, tortured and crucified on the cross at Calvary. We cried for Jesus who appeared helpless in the hands of Jewish authorities. We cried because Jesus who has become the hope of the poor, the sick and the oppressed has been taken away from us. We love Jesus but little did we know that God loves Him more and the will of God must surely prevail.

Today, we are blessed with the good news that Jesus is alive. Jesus has risen from death. Death has no power over Him. By virtue of His death and resurrection, the world has been saved and because He lives we can face tomorrow with courage and hope.

As Easter people, we look at the past not with anger but with hope. The cross of Jesus becomes the symbol of our salvation. Now we have come to understand that it is God's love and not our sin that made Jesus to die on the cross. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son and whosoever believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life.

Jesus lives to die no more. By His death He conquered our death and by His resurrection He has restored our life. Eternal life becomes the inheritance of the children of God. Death is no longer an end in itself but a point of transition from temporal life on earth to eternal life in heaven, which is a gift that only God can give to those who believe and love Him.

My sisters and brothers, we are the Easter people, and alleluia is our song. Today, we are proud to say it loud and clear to the world that we worship a living God who has called us out of darkness into His own marvelous light.

By virtue of His resurrection from death we have received a mandate to proclaim the good news of salvation to the world. Today, as we renew our faith in the resurrection of Jesus, we also renew the mandate to become Jesus made visible to others in the world. The battle from which Jesus emerged victorious remains a battle for the children of God to fight in the world today. It is by standing up for justice, peace, truth and love especially for all the oppressed people in the world that we testify today that Jesus is alive, we are the Easter people and alleluia is our song. Amen, Alleluia.

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Pregunta de la 1ª Lectura:

En su predica, Pedro enfatiza que él y los apóstoles fueron elegidos como “testigos” para contar a otros la vida, muerte y resurrección de Jesús. ¿Alguna vez le has dicho a alguien por qué crees en Jesús?

Pregunta de la 2ª Lectura:

Pablo insta a los corintios a celebrar la muerte y la resurrección de Jesús con sinceridad y verdad. ¿Cómo celebra tu familia el Domingo de Resurrección?

Evangelio:

Escuchamos cómo María de Magdala, Pedro y el discípulo amado reaccionaron al ver la tumba vacía de Jesús. ¿Cómo compartes las noticias sorprendentes con los demás?
