FROM THE PASTOR'S CORNER

34th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year "C" Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

One day King Henry the Fourth of France was hunting in a large forest. Towards evening he told his men to ride home by the main road while he went by another way that was somewhat longer.

As he came out of the forest he saw a little boy by the roadside, who seemed to be watching for some one.

"Well, my boy," said the king, "are you looking for your father?"

"No, sir," answered the boy. "I am looking for the king. They say he is hunting in the woods, and perhaps will ride out this way. So I'm waiting to see him."

"Oh, if that is what you wish," said King Henry, "get up behind me on the horse and I'll take you to the place where you will see him."

The boy got up at once, and sat behind the king. The horse cantered briskly along, and king and boy were soon quite well acquainted.

"They say that King Henry always has a number of men with him," said the boy; "how shall I know which is he?"

"Oh, that will be easy enough," was the answer. "All the other men will take off their hats, but the king will keep his on."

"Do you mean that the one with his hat on will be the king?"

"Certainly."

Soon they came into the main road where a number of the king's men were waiting. All the men seemed amused when they saw the boy, and as they rode up, they greeted the king by taking off their hats.

"Well, my boy," said King Henry, "which do you think is the king?"

"I don't know," answered the boy; "but it must be either you or I, for we both have our hats on" (James Baldwin, "Which was the king?").

The celebration of the feast of "Christ the King" dates back to the time of Pope Pius XI. He used this feast to honor the kingship of Christ and to crown the jubilee year in 1925. In the motu proprio Mysterii Paschalis of Pope Paul VI in 1969 the title of this feast was changed from "Christ the King" to the solemnity of "Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe." He further decreed that the solemnity should be celebrated on the last Sunday of the liturgical year. By so doing he highlights the eschatological nature of the solemnity, which points to the end of time when the kingdom of God will be established in all its fullness.

With the solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we come to the end of the church's liturgical year (Year C or Year 3). Next Sunday we shall begin the Advent season which marks the beginning of a new liturgical year (Year A or Year 1). Today, the faithful unite in prayer to proclaim Christ's dominion over all creatures, a dominion not seized by violence nor usurped, but by His essence and by His nature. As both God and Man, Jesus Christ is adored by angels and human beings, because Christ has dominion over all creatures in heaven and on earth.

The title "King" may not look attractive today because we no longer live in the era of kings and queens; however, our proclamation of Jesus Christ as King has both historical and eschatological dimensions. From birth Jesus was proclaimed a King when the Magi gave Him the gift of gold, but it was not until while hanging on the cross at Calvary that Pilate proclaimed "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews" (INRI).

In Jesus, kingship assumes an exponential character. Unlike earthly kings who lord it over their subjects and make their authorities to be felt, Jesus is our ideal King "who, though He was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form He humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father" (Phil 2:6-11).

The Kingship of Jesus models the universal character of the church. Unlike earthly kingship that is usually exclusive, in Jesus, kingship is inclusive. By virtue of our baptism, Christians have been called, chosen and anointed to become priests, prophets and kings. The salvation we gained by the death of Jesus on the cross is for the salvation of the world. Hence, in the kingdom of God, all are welcome.

The celebration of the kingship of Jesus extols the virtues of service, integrity, honesty, nobility, humility, peace, truth, love, justice and our call to protect the integrity of every sentient being. All baptized children of God are called to work for the civilization of love on earth.

Celebrating the Kingship of Jesus becomes an invitation to serve. Like Jesus who is always in our midst to serve and not to be served, Christians are in the world to serve as the light of the world and the salt of the earth. It is by witnessing to the values of truth, love, peace and justice that we establish on earth, the kingdom of God and its righteousness.

Therefore, having lived our lives shaped by the word of God, Christians all over the world are emboldened today to march triumphantly in procession at every street corner to say it loud and clear to all that Jesus Christ is the King of the world and His dominion over the world shall last forever. Even though Christians like every other person living on earth may suffer the effects of violence, oppression, injustice and war, yet, Christians should not be afraid because at the end of history, the power of Christ shall triumph and His kingdom shall reign forever and ever. Amen.

Did you know?

A few weeks ago, we looked at physical grooming and how predators use it to lure victims. Another type of grooming is psychological, in which a predator spends a great deal of time with his or her victim, showering them with attention and making the victim feel a shared connection. When the predator becomes a peer to the child, then he has control. He can then offer special treatment — or threaten to take away that treatment, and even make threats against the child's family, pets, and other friends. For more information about psychological grooming, read the VIRTUS® article "The Grooming Process" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

All are invited to spend quiet time in prayer and adoration in our parish Adoration Chapel. Whether you come for five minutes or an hour, this is a beautiful opportunity to rest in the presence of our Lord, offer your intentions, and deepen your relationship with Him.

Experience the peace and grace that come from simply being with Jesus.

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Pregunta de la 1ª Lectura:

El pueblo de Israel reconoció que David era un líder natural y, con la bendición del Señor, lo ungió rey de Israel. ¿Qué crees que hace que alguien sea un buen líder?

Pregunta de la 2ª Lectura:

Pablo ofrece a los colosenses una hermosa poesía que reflexiona sobre cómo Jesús reconcilió todas las cosas en el cielo y en la tierra. ¿Puedes compartir un momento en el que te hayas reconciliado con un familiar o amigo?

Pregunta del Evangelio:

Jesús le aseguró al criminal arrepentido crucificado a su lado que estaría con él en el paraíso. ¿A quién podrías darle palabras de consuelo esta semana?

Jesús es Rey

Querido Jesús,

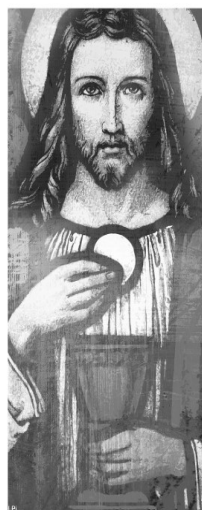

Ve el reino que amas, el que está lleno de quebrantados y olvidados.

Ve la corona que llevas, espinas por amor a mí. Te elijo como mi Rey. Moldea mi corazón para ser un miembro digno de tu reino.

Amén.

Hace unas semanas, vimos los comportamientos de engaño (conocido en inglés como, grooming) físicos y cómo los depredadores lo utilizan para atraer a sus víctimas. Otro tipo de manipulación es la psicológica, en la que el depredador pasa mucho tiempo con su víctima, prestándole mucha atención y haciéndole sentir que existe una conexión entre ambos. Entonces puede ofrecer un trato especial, o amenazar con quitar ese trato, e incluso amenazar a la familia, las mascotas y otros amigos del niño. Para mayores informes sobre los comportamientos de engaño lea el artículo de VIRTUS® "The Grooming Process" (El proceso de engañar hacia el abuso) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
